

Regenis, LLC, a part of Andgar Corporation, is currently seeking an Operator/Mechanical Maintenance Technician to work on Power Generation Facilities (renewable energy). Primary work will be done in Twin Falls & Jerome County with some in Gooding County.

Job Description:

- Monitoring and recording instruments
- Data entry of site operating performance
- Maintaining a variety of pumps and motors
- Troubleshooting and repairing controls and instrumentation
- Oil and filter changes on large reciprocating engines
- Cleaning separator screens
- Maintain site cleanliness and appearance

Qualifications:

- High School Diploma or equivalent
- Must have a clean driving record
- Solid work ethic and willingness to learn
- Be able to work all days and shifts, periods of On-Call status will be required
- ELECTRICAL, MECHANICAL, WELDING experience preferred
- DIESEL mechanical ability preferred
- Dairy farm background a plus
- Be willing and able to work in inclement weather and get dirty.
- Physically able to lift and/or maneuver, motors, pumps, gear boxes and pipe weighing in excess of 100 lbs.
- Bilingual (Spanish) speaking abilities are a plus

Pay, Incentives, and Benefits:

- Wage is based on experience
- Benefits: Medical, Dental, Vision, Disability & Life Ins., Vacation, Holidays, 401K
- Employee Referral Bonuses & Safety Incentive Program

Please send a resume to careers@andgar.com. Regenis is an Equal Opportunity Employer.